

Why you'll love brightwheel

Save time logging activities

Drastically cut down the time it takes to log daily sheets and attendance. Naps, potty, learning observations, and more can be added in bulk.

"The preset options make logging the children's information much easier and allows me to focus more on hands-on work with the children." -Teacher in Shelbyville, IN

Strengthen your partnership with families

Build deeper bonds with families with real-time messaging.

"It's so easy to communicate with parents. There is no lack in communication, and I can keep parents updated at all times." -Teacher in Chicago, IL

Enjoy how easy it is to use

Educators love how user-friendly brightwheel is. The simple interface means anyone can start using it immediately.

"Everyone can use it easily with little training." -Teacher in Milwaukee, WI

Show off the great work you do!

Instantly share learning activities, milestones, and progress with families and other staff.

"It is a practical, fast way for parents and staff to be aware of the activities children do in class." Teacher in Miami Beach, FL
